

ROOSEVELT HOLDS COUNCIL

He Plans Campaign Against Old Guard

IN THE FIGHT TO STAY

Lloyd Griscom Makes Announcement After a Conference with the President and Other New York Politicians.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Theodore Roosevelt meant what he said when he announced on his return from his western trip, that he was going home to "fight the bosses."

"Mr. Roosevelt's name will certainly be presented to the Republican state convention," said Lloyd C. Griscom, president of the New York county Republican committee last night, after a conference of several hours at Sagamore Hill, during which the political situation in this state was discussed in all its aspects by Mr. Roosevelt and the leaders of the progressive movement within the party. "Moreover," he added, "we can count on a majority of the delegates."

In the conference with Mr. Griscom and Mr. Roosevelt were Representative Herbert Parsons, Representative William M. Calder of Brooklyn, Comptroller William A. Prendergast of New York City, F. J. H. Kracke, naval officer of the port and Postmaster Voorhis of Brooklyn. Primaries are to be held in New York, Buffalo and Rochester today and Colonel Roosevelt hoped to ascertain just what inroads the old guard leaders might make in the New York county delegation.

Before leaving for Oyster Bay yesterday afternoon, Chairman Griscom admitted that the old guard leaders were expected to make contests in several assembly districts, with a view to breaking up the solid delegation which New York county plans to send to the state convention in support of Colonel Roosevelt.

SPEECH BY JACK JOHNSON.

What Heavyweight Champion Said to Lemon Throwing at Toronto.

Toronto, Sept. 13.—Someone threw a lemon at Jack Johnson, while he was performing at a Toronto theatre the other night. Stepping to the front of the stage, the dusky champion gave an exhibition of that cool, verbal castigation which James J. Corbett found so disconcerting at the ringside in Reno last July.

"I can't see beyond the footlights, and I don't know where it came from," said the champion, "but it's very easy for one man among hundreds to do it, when he wouldn't meet me face to face."

"I've always been very well treated in Canada by the well-educated and fair-minded public, and I hold a warm spot in my heart for Canada; but a lemon will be a bump, no matter among whom he happens to be. But let that man, if he can, remember his home training and try to do justice to it."

"Black Scab" On Potatoes.

Washington, Sept. 13.—A right quarantine is being drawn by the government against a disease of the potato, which has made its appearance and which it is feared will be communicated to the New England states. It is known as the "black scab" or "wart" disease. The disease forms scabs over the potatoes and ultimately destroys all in the hill. A field once affected cannot be planted to potatoes again for six years.

Do You Get Up

With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Diamond Scintillations.

Jack Knight, the schoolboy, continues to play great ball for the Yankees. In the last game with the Senators he accepted seven chances in the field and batted at a .500 clip.

Catcher Thomas of the Athletics will be kept "in cotton" from now until the end of the American league season, so he will be in shape for the world's series in which Philadelphia is all but sure of participating. Thomas is suffering from a lame back, and although his injuries are not serious, Connie Mack is taking no chances.

More than one person who has money invested in New England league baseball will have occasion to remember the holidays during 1910. The Fourth of July was the good holiday this year that brought good baseball weather.

Larry Gardner is back in a Red Sox uniform, having recovered from the injury received in St. Louis.

Down, of the champion New Bedford team of the New England league, was awarded a big reception in that city last night. It is possible that he will go into business there this winter.

Webb, the former New Britain twirler, tops the list of Connecticut league pitchers this year with a record of six games won, one tied, and none lost. Haynes of the same team is virtually second, having won five out of seven games pitched.

The Pittsfield team closes its season next Saturday with an enviable record of having 60 victories out of 95 games played up to date. Among the teams scheduled for this week are Hartford and Waterbury of the Connecticut league. The strong Huntington team has been out of the few clubs to take a fall out of the Massachusetts aggregation. Bennington registered a 3 to 1 victory against them Saturday.

George Winter and Lord Burchell are with Montpelier this season. Ty Cobb picks the Athletics to beat the Cubs in the post-season series. Cobb figures that Combs and Bender can outpitch any of the twirlers Frank Chance has to offer.

Ted Coy, the celebrated Yale player, has no fault to find with the new football rules. He says that football will be a better game this fall.

John J. McGraw has been manager of the Giants since July, 1902. The first game played under his management was with Philadelphia on July 10.

Steele of Altoona, who helped win the Tri-State pennant this season, is going back to the big leagues. He has been sold to the St. Louis Americans.

Pitcher Kruk, suspended by the Cubs, has been sold to the Louisville club. An Indian Orchard sporting writer has the following to say about record time for duration of a ball game: "When the Northampton Connecticut league team played a game of baseball in this city last Tuesday in 55 minutes, a world's record was made, which record had previously been held, according to one of the leading local sporting authorities, by the Father Mathew team of Indian Orchard. On August 1, 1903, when they defeated the Three River team on the depot grounds in Indian Orchard, in a full nine-inning game by a score of 3 to 1 in just 57 minutes, they lowered the previous world's record and up to date no mention has ever been made of anyone beating the local time of 57 minutes."

Football practice began at Syracuse university yesterday. Twenty-two men were on hand for the first instruction by head coach Tad Jones. Fifteen of the men were members of last year's squad.

The Yale football squad began practice today. The preliminary work will be put in at Lakeville, where 50 candidates have already assembled. It is said that Connie Mack gets no stipulated salary as manager, but his share of last year's proceeds amounted to $20,000. He will probably receive a bonus in the event of his team winning the pennant.

PACKERS INDICTED

Three Bills Against Men in Packing Industry

RETURNED BY GRAND JURY

Monopoly, Combination in Restraint of Trade and That They Are Engaged in a Conspiracy, Are the Indictments.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—The federal grand jury yesterday returned three indictments against men prominent in the packing industry here.

The men indicted are L. F. Swift, president, and Edward Swift, vice president of Swift and company; Charles H. Swift, and Francis A. Fowler, directors of Swift and company; Edward Tilden, president of the National Packing company, J. Ogden Armour, president, Arthur Meeker, general manager, and Thomas J. Conners, superintendent of Armour and company; Edward Morris, president, and Louis R. Heyman manager of Morris and company.

The first indictment charges all defendants with engaging in a combination in restraint of interstate trade in fresh meats. The second charges conspiracy and the third charges the defendants with monopolizing the trade in fresh meats by unlawful means.

CUSTOMS WEAVERS BRIBED?

This the Testimony Given at Fraud Trial in New York.

New York, Sept. 13.—In the customs underweighing fraud trial before United States Judge Martin yesterday, George Lunny testified that he had been an intermediary between importers and the weighers and that it was he who distributed the money for the underweighing of imports. He said that he represented Westervelt & Co. and other importers, who were willing to pay liberally for underweighing of cargoes. Otto W. Westervelt, the next witness, testified to having begun paying the bribe money for underweighing shortly after the passage of the Dingley bill, increasing the tariff on imports. He said that a customs clerk and a one-time assistant government weigher, connected with George E. Buelch, chief clerk of the deputy surveyor and one of the defendants, with the frauds. He said a go-between named Carney on various occasions, beginning with the fall of 1906, gave him bribe money for underweighing sugar imports for Barton Brothers. He divided this money with Buelch, he said. On cargoes of cheese he got from $100 to $150 a cargo and divided this money with Buelch.

WAS ARRESTED AS SPY.

American Citizen Had Trouble Reassuring German Authorities.

Danzig, Prussia, Sept. 13.—It transpires that during the recent imperial army maneuvers, E. G. Claassen, an American citizen, was arrested on suspicion of being a spy. Claassen satisfied the authorities of his innocence and was let go later.

He came here to visit his old home and improved the opportunity to witness the operations. His many questions as to the movements of the combatants excited the suspicion of the military authorities, and though the visitor showed a letter of credit and gave first class references in Elbing, the officers refused to believe his story for information, but held Claassen and called military police officials from Danzig. The latter examined the prisoner, and decided he was a harmless observer.

WANTS STABLE GOVERNMENT.

Nicaragua Asks the United States to Help.

Washington, Sept. 13.—A program for the establishment of a stable government in Nicaragua was set before the American government yesterday for its approval in a long cable dispatch from provisional President Estrada, which Senator Salvador Castillejo, Nicaraguan representative here, presented to Assistant Secretary of State Wilson.

President Estrada suggests the appointment of a high commissioner to visit Nicaragua to negotiate a treaty covering the United States claims against Nicaragua; for indemnity for the execution by order of ex-President Zelaya of Greece and Cannon, and the Emery claim. To pay these claims, President Estrada desires to pledge one per cent. of the customs receipts. It is expected that within a few days acting President Estrada will issue decrees providing for the election of the constituent assembly.

FINANCIAL DIFFERENCES

Apparently Led to Parting of Chanler and Mme. Cavalleri.

New York, Sept. 13.—The first admission that there had been financial differences between Robert W. Chanler and his famous bride, Mme. Lina Cavalleri, was made yesterday by Sydney Harris, Mr. Chanler's counsel. When asked if there had been an ante-nuptial agreement, he said: "There was, but I will not say how much money was involved. We are hoping that this unpleasant matter may be settled without litigation."

"Mr. Chanler still loves Mme. Cavalleri; that is, he still thinks he loves her. Aside from this financial difference, they are on good terms."

MADE ARCTIC DISCOVERIES.

Prof. MacMillan, Worcester, Explored West of Davis Inlet.

New York, Sept. 13.—Prof. Donald B. MacMillan of Worcester academy, who accompanied Commander Peary on his trip to the north pole, sent word to friends here yesterday that his party had explored the land west of Davis Inlet, and had been successful.

"It might be of interest to you to know that we have pulled off our trip successfully. Our plan was to strike land west from Davis Inlet, across country through an unexplored section until we came to the George river and home of the Nascapene Indians, hoping en route to discover many unknown lakes and the regular trail of these people to the coast."

"We did all that we planned and more. Took nights for longitude and altitude at various points on the trip, passed through the large lakes, the largest, Mt. Ter-Nip, about 35 miles, and came to the George about 150 miles from the coast. We passed one night in a lodge with Nascapene Indians at Chen-E-Tee-Vis on banks of river."

EXPOSITION BREAKS A RECORD.

The Appalachian Show in Knoxville Is Ready When Opened.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 13.—The Appalachian exposition, for which Knoxville and the entire southern Appalachian region have been preparing for the past eleven months, was formally opened yesterday. The exposition is complete in every particular, thus proving an exception among American expositions. The ceremonies planned for yesterday included a street pageant, formal opening exercises at the exposition grounds, with brief addresses by Governor Patterson, Mayor Haskell and President W. J. Oliver of the exposition company. The formal opening was followed by the opening of the midway jungle, presenting forty-five amusement attractions. Running and trotting races for purses aggregating $10,000 began yesterday afternoon. The livestock exhibition is the most complete ever seen in the South.

SHAKEUP IN TREASURY.

Superintendent of Buildings Reduced to Clerkship—Jemison Succeeds Him.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Another shakeup in the administrative ranks at the treasury occurred yesterday, when W. M. Inlay, first superintendent of buildings, was reduced to a clerkship and F. H. Jemison, a clerk, was appointed to succeed him. Inlay was confidential clerk to former Secretary Leslie M. Shaw. George Simmons, chief of the division of printing and stationery for the last twelve years, was reduced to a clerkship, and E. F. Weston was transferred from the government printing office to succeed him.

EVIDENCE INSUFFICIENT.

And Captain of the Saxonia Was Therefore Discharged.

Boston, Sept. 13.—Captain H. Benson of the Cunard liner Saxonia was discharged for lack of evidence by United States Commissioner Hayes of the United States district court yesterday, after a hearing on charges growing out of the smuggling into this country of eight Chinamen on the Saxonia last month. James Evans, master-at-arms, and William Hackett, lamp trimmer, on board the Saxonia, also were discharged, but were immediately afterward summoned to appear before the federal grand jury.

How to Spray.
Assuming that the fruit-grower is properly equipped with apparatus and material and ready to apply the spray to the trees, the next question is how to do it. If the day is calm, spraying may be done in any direction most convenient. If the wind is light, spray so that the wind blows nearly as possible across or at right angles to the rows to be treated. By so doing and working from windward the trees are easily reached on opposite sides, says the New York Farmer.

It should be noted that it is impossible to spray a tree of any size effectively from one side only. In a brisk wind the same rule applies except that only one side of the tree is sprayed, and then watch for the opportunity and with a changed wind, spray the opposite side.

SHIP AFIRE FOR 12 DAYS.

California Docks at Havre With the Flames Still Burning.

Havre, Sept. 13.—The French freight and passenger steamer Californie arrived from New York with a fire that has been fought for 12 days, still burning brightly in her hold. The crew was exhausted and called upon the city firemen to finish the job. The firemen proceeded to flood the craft and hope to save part of the cargo. The Californie had 16 passengers, who were glad to get ashore.

The steamer, which carries only second class passengers and not many of them, is owned by the Compagnie Generale Transatlantique. She sailed from New York for Havre on Aug. 27, with a load of merchandise. On Sept. 1, a puff of smoke rose from one of the hatchways and warned the master of trouble below.

A hurried investigation uncovered a blaze that had been working its way into the cargo until it got a start that was too much for the crew. From the moment of discovery until the Californie drew into the harbor yesterday, her sailors had little rest. They were successful, however, in keeping the flames below deck.

Wages and Revenue.

New York, Sept. 13.—Statistics submitted at the freight rate hearing yesterday afternoon showed that for the Boston & Maine railroad the wage increase of $2,047,740 was to be offset by $336,198 increase in revenues. For the New Haven, the wage increase was $1,722,596, and increased revenues $648,862.

PUT GLUE INTO ICE CREAM.

Pennsylvania Dealers Fined for Giving It "Proper Consistency."

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—As a result of the analysis of samples of ice cream, some of which contained furniture glue, 10 dealers were fined $25 each here. The glue preparation was used to give proper consistency to the ice cream. It is said to be very harmful.

Judge McPherson, in the United States district court, ordered the destruction of a large quantity of out-of-date, canned tomatoes and ice cream cones that had recently been seized by federal food inspectors as being either partly decomposed or containing injurious preservative matter. Owners of the goods neither claimed their property nor opposed its confiscation.
